

Season's Greetings

1960

When you look back over the year you wonder what you've done, other than age. We traveled to Utah to visit parents, all getting older and watched our children grow older. Edward - 8th grade - likes school, football, and girls. He was asked to play oboe in the Lewisville Civic Orchestra - a big challenge for him. He became a star scout in time to attend the Nat'l Jamboree in Colo Springs. Gary - 5th grade - plays violin in school orchestra. He's been building a Tree House with his Dad, this fall. His main interests are science and reading. Marty - 4th grade - started piano this fall. He, too, is a tree house builder when he can break away from the neighborhood kick ball game. Jamie - 3rd grade - also started piano. She keeps the phone busy with her social life. Alan - 2 1/2 years - has escaped babyhood to become our most independent child. His droll sayings keep springing in our lives. We sat down to a turkey dinner with all the trimmings. Alan, very concerned, said, "Where's my tuna sandwich?" We've enjoyed our visit with you. Hope your holiday season is happy and the coming year full of many blessings. Cy, Mary, Al, Ed, Marty, Jamie, Gary
