

WITH BEST WISHES TO YOU

FOR A

Happy
Holiday Season

1963

We are looking forward to this Christmas with joy and thanks for the blessings of the past year. Our children are growing into young men and women. Edward is a Junior and Pres. of his class. He still plays football when he doesn't have a broken toe; he has participated in several plays; he finally made the honor roll and acquired a driver's licence. Gary, 8th grade, is planning on being in the Scout Service unit at the World's Fair next summer. Marty, 7th grade, struggling for all he gets, is going to the Scout Jamboree next summer. He is proud to be a Seacon. Jamie, 6th grade, is a Junior Girl Scout and a Meritband. She is a fair student and quite a nice little girl. Al, our kindergartener, amuses us all. Cy is still busy at G&C and takes a class at the U.S.G. Mary, does a little bit of everything depending upon the request. Best wishes to each of you.
