

Seasons Greeting For 1968

Edward became of age this year. He enlisted for two years to get his army service behind him. He had basic at Ft. Leonard Wood, graduated from cooks school ~~where~~ where he was an Honor student and is now at Ft. Benning at OCS. Already wearing his bars on his underwear.

Gary graduated from Wheaton Central H.S. He worked part-time at Jewell Grocery Store. He started this fall at the Univ. of Ill. He's studying Chemistry. He's a Mid-Shipman in the N.R.O.T.C.

Martin is a senior at Wheaton H.S. He's also a stockboy at Jewell, a stalwart in their ranks. He's saving his money to go to the Univ of Utah next year. He's the most willing, busiest, nicest fellow you'd ever want to meet.

Jamie is a junior. She is busy in church activities. Sews a lot. Has turned her mother grey headed while teaching her to drive. She is a check girl at Jewell (We owe Jewell a lot). She's started dating and knows "The Cellar" pretty well by now. She's very nice.

Alan, 10, is in the 5th grade. A little Leaguer. Webloes. A pianist of a sort. An avid Cub, Bear, Bull, and Blackhawk fan. He keeps our house full of his friends and our cupboard bare.

We almost left our new friends here in Illinois and returned to old friends in Louisville. Cy and the boys fished in Canada in the spring. We vacationed in Utah and Yellowstone in the fall. Mary is school Library Chairman and Church Librarian.

A new vocation for her. We're all busy.

Christmas reminds us to be thankful for our many good friends and for our rich, full, and interesting life.

*Our very best wishes to each of you for the coming year.
