

Preston, Idaho
October 25, 1939

A blessing given by Leontidas A Meecham Patriarch upon the head of Cyril Kearn, Son of Chase Kearn and Hael Kearn Born in Paris, Idaho July 20, 1923. Brother Cyril I place my hands upon your head and by virtue of my calling I give unto you a Patriarchical Blessing and pray our father in heaven to let his spirit rest upon you that you will be able to understand and fully realize the importance of the promises that may be made you you have been privileged to come upon the earth in this day and time when the Gospel has been restored that you may assist in establishing the work of the Lord upon the earth. I bless you that you shall have the power and the strength of mind to honor the pries hood and magnify every calling and perform every labor that may be required at you hands by those who preside be humble seek counsel and you will grow in knowledge and faith that you will be able to prepare yourself for the labors of life And the labors that you will be called to perform will be more for the betterment and the uplift of the young therefore I say into you labor to prepare yourself for the things you will have to meet I bless you that when temptations come you will have the strengt to resist and to overcome every temptation that may beset your path in time to come you will meet up with a companion that you will be gald to lead to the altar in the house of the Lord where you can take upon yourself sacred obligations and make solemn covenants that will be binding during this life and the life which is to come thou art of Ephraim and if you keep the commandments the blessing of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob will be thine to enjoy you will be called to labor and preside and especially to teach the principles of life and salvation to those with whom you associate and the day will come when your heart will be turned to the fathers and you will have a desire to do something for their blessing salvation and exaltation and you will be caused to rejoice because of the priveledge you will have of doing a work for your dead relatives that they can not do for themselves and the these testomny will come to you of the divine calling of the Prophet Joseph Smith and of the work that he established until the ending of this time and now dear brother I bless you that you may be fully qualified for every labor that you may be called to perform and be successful both religiously and finianceially these blessings I seal upon your head and seal you up to come forth in the resurrection of the just and to dwell upon the earth when it shall recieve its pariceical glory all of which I do in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen

Leontidas A. Meecham
Patriarch.