

Wife Of Former Franklin County Agent Dies In Logan

Mrs. Hazel L. Kearn, wife of Chase Kearn, 71, passed away unexpectedly at her home, 318 Canyon Road last night.

She was a daughter of James A. and Julia Ekins Loveless

DEATH last night claimed Mrs. Chase Kearn, 71.

and was born in Provo, August 19, 1889.

In the Salt Lake LDS Temple in 1915 she married Mr. Kearn. She had graduated from Brigham Young University and had done graduate work at Michigan State University and had fulfilled a mission to the Northern States.

Much of their married life was spent in Preston and Franklin County where Mr. Kearn had been County Agent and had been associated with Franklin County Sugar Co.

For about 17 years they had lived at Mt. Clemmens, Michigan. The past two years they had made their home in Logan.

Mrs. Kearn had been active in the LDS Church and at the time of her death was a member of the Logan 13th Ward.

Surviving are her husband of Logan and the following children: Russell J., Logan; DelMar, Ithaca, New York; Spencer, New Orleans, Louisiana; Bryant, Madison, Wisconsin; Cyril, Louisville, Kentucky; Mrs. Bruce (Phyllis) Belnap, Schenectady, New York; 23 grandchildren; two brothers, James A. Loveless and Ray E. Loveless, both of Orem.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Hazel Kearn, Church Aide, Dies In Logan

LOGAN—Hazel L. Kearn, 71, Church worker and wife of a former Cache County farm agent, died Monday in Logan of natural causes.

Mrs. Kearn, who had been active in the Logan 13th Ward, had filled a mission to the Northern States and had been active in Church auxiliaries.

Born Aug. 19, 1889, in Provo, she was a daughter of James A. and Julia Ekins Loveless. In 1915 she married Chase Kearn in the Salt Lake Temple, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

She was a graduate of the Brigham Young University and had done graduate work at Michigan State University.

Survivors include her husband, Logan, sons and daughters, Russell J., Logan; DelMar, Ithaca, N.Y.; Spencer, New Orleans; Bryant, Madison, Wis.; Cyril, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Bruce (Phyllis) Belnap, Schenectady, N.Y.; 23 grandchildren; two brothers, James A. Loveless and Ray E. Loveless, both of Orem.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday 2 p.m. at the Hall Mortuary Chapel. Friends may call at the mortuary Friday 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturday after 1 p.m. Burial will be in the Logan City Cemetery.