KEARL REUNION

Program for the afternoon of July 19, 1987.

Tour of Laketown and the places that Merlin Kearl knew.

We plan to use a couple of flatbed trucks (Russ Kearl) and a hay wagon (Norma Willis) loaded with bales of hay and straw to carry those who come to the reunion to the following points of interest. There will be some one at each of the places dressed in costume representing the appropriate person to tell about that place.

1. The "Old Rock Store". (Describe a pioneer store. Tell about the years that Aunt Grace worked for the Robinsons in the old Rock Store.) Give out home made hard candy suckers furnished by Mary Kearl.

Grace KEARL Lambourne -
Edna Rae Kofen.

2. Laketown Chapel.

Merlin EASTHAM Kearl -
Aloha Garchant.

3. The old Relief Society Building.

Merlin EASTHAM Kearl -
Edyth WESTON Earley.

4. The lot on which Merlin's house stood. (Tell about it's construction and about Grandma Merlin's Pantry.)

Grace KEARL Lambourne -
Terne WILLIS Behunin.

5. Laketown Graveyard. Treasure hunt with prizes for each person who completes the following:

- A. Find Merlin Kearl's grave.
- B. Find the graves of the infants Jeanette and Robert who died of diphtheria after Merlin took in a sick family up at Otter Creek.
- C. Find all of the graves of people with Kearl surnames.
- D. Find James Kearl's grave.
- E. Find the grave with a baseball on the tombstone and write down the inscription on it.

Jamie KEARL Burnett

6. James Kearl's Barn. (Tell about the many uses of it. Housing Pedlars and the dances and socials that were held in the loft.)

James Kearl - Martin Kearl

7. The "South 40" that Merlin's father, John EASTHAM, bought for her.

John EASTHAM - Gordon Willis
