TERM REPORTS FOR COLLEGE OF ARTS, GRADUATE AND EDUCATION DEPARTMENTS

The standing of a student in his work is expressed by grades made up from class work and from examinations. There are seven grades: A, excellent; B, good; C, fair; D, pass; E, failure; F, bad failure; G, failure too bad to continue the course. To pass in a course it is necessary to secure a grade of at least D on both class work and term examination. For further information about grades and reports see the Catalogue, pages 77-81.
